Tell It Like It Is

Words and music by Scott Miller

How did we get here?
Went by like a blink of an eye.
Been traveling for hours,
But moments never seem to last.
So tell it like it is.
I'm ready to stand up and fight.
This feeling I'm feeling,
I'm gonna be alright ... I just might.

As anger turns to sadness,
Will tears wash away all the fear?
Been searching through memories;
Many more are yet to be born.
So tell it like it is.
I'm ready to stand up and fight.
This feeling I'm feeling,
I'm gonna be alright ... I just might.

Tell it like it is.
Don't hold back;
I really need to know.
I'm not gonna come undone.
I'm in this 'till I've won.
Beginning to understand.
I'm ready to jump but where will I land?
Tell it like it is.
